

*Online Resources:METHAMPHETAMINE*Office of National Drug Control Policy – Drug Facts: Methamphetamine

<http://www.whitehousedrugpolicy.gov/drugfact/methamphetamine/index.html>

The Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) establishes policies, priorities and objectives for the nation’s drug control program. The “Methamphetamine” drug fact sheet gives a general overview of methamphetamine that includes information on the prevalence of use, mental and physical consequences, treatment, trafficking and legislation.

National Institute on Drug Abuse - Methamphetamine

<http://www.drugabuse.gov/drugpages/methamphetamine.html>

The National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) is a scientific research institution that studies and disseminates information on drug abuse and addiction prevention, treatment and policy. The “Methamphetamine” page contains links to fact sheets, publication, notes, news releases and other resources related to methamphetamine.

*Additional Publications:Methamphetamine Infofacts

<http://www.nida.nih.gov/Infofax/methamphetamine.html>

Provides in depth information on the negative mental and physical effects of methamphetamine abuse.

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration’s Office of Applied Studies-Methamphetamine Abuse in the US

<http://www.samhsa.gov/oas/NHSDA/Treatan/treana13.htm>

Offers the latest national data on methamphetamine related emergency department episodes, medical examiner cases and the nation’s substance abuse treatment system.

Drug Enforcement Administration – Methamphetamine

http://www.usdoj.gov/dea/concern/meth_factsheet.html

The Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) enforces controlled substances laws and regulations in the United States. The “Methamphetamine” drug description page discusses methamphetamine trafficking, seizures and prices.

*Additional Publications:Children at Clandestine Methamphetamine Labs: Helping Meth’s Youngest Victims

<http://www.ojp.gov/ovc/publications/bulletins/children/197590.pdf>

Details the health and safety risks of children living at illegal methamphetamine laboratory sites.

The Forms of Methamphetamine

<http://www.dea.gov/pubs/intel/02016/index.html>

Provides photos and descriptions of the various forms of methamphetamine.

StopDrugs.org

<http://www.stopdrugs.org/>

Produced through a partnership of the California Narcotic Officers' Association and the California Department of Justice, this site has a wealth of information on drugs, with an emphasis on methamphetamine.

Additional publications:

Recognizing Clandestine Meth Labs

<http://www.stopdrugs.org/recognizinglabs.html>

Includes pictures of meth labs and equipment.

Law Enforcement Checklist for First Response to a Lab

<http://www.stopdrugs.org/firstresponse.html>

Outlines customary procedure for officers encountering a methamphetamine lab.

U.S. Department of Justice: National Institute of Justice (NIJ)

<http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/nij/>

NIJ is the research and development agency of the U.S. Department of Justice and is the only federal agency solely dedicated to researching crime control and justice issues.

Additional publications:

Ya Ba Fast Facts

<http://www.usdoj.gov/ndic/pubs5/5048/index.htm>

Provides in depth information about the negative mental and physical effects of methamphetamine in pill-form, known as “Ya Ba.”

For more online resources on methamphetamine, please visit

<http://www.DrugStory.org>